Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as conduct that would constitute a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person in relation to the contravention.

69EJK  Evidence given in civil proceedings not admissible in criminal proceedings

(1) Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual for an offence if:
   (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order against the individual for an alleged contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
   (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.

Subdivision C—Miscellaneous

69EJL  Continuing contraventions of civil penalty provisions

(1) If an act or thing is required under a civil penalty provision to be done:
   (a) within a particular period; or
   (b) before a particular time;
then the obligation to do that act or thing continues until the act or thing is done (even if the period has expired or the time has passed).
(2) A person who contravenes a civil penalty provision that requires an act or thing to be done:
   (a) within a particular period; or
   (b) before a particular time;
commits a separate contravention of that provision in respect of each day during which the contravention occurs (including the day the relevant civil penalty order is made or any later day).

69EJM Ancillary contravention of civil penalty provisions

(1) A person must not:
   (a) attempt to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
   (b) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (c) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (d) be in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (e) conspire with others to effect a contravention of a civil penalty provision.

Civil penalty

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the provision.

Note: Section 69EJO (which provides that a person’s state of mind does not need to be proven in relation to a civil penalty provision) does not apply to the extent that proceedings relate to the contravention of subsection (1).

69EJN Mistake of fact

(1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
   (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
      (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
(ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
(b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
(a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
(b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

(3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

69EJO State of mind

(1) In proceedings for a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, it is not necessary to prove:
(a) the person’s intention; or
(b) the person’s knowledge; or
(c) the person’s recklessness; or
(d) the person’s negligence; or
(e) any other state of mind of the person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the proceedings relate to a contravention of subsection 69EJM(1) (which is about ancillary contraventions of civil penalty provisions).

(3) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of section 69EJN (which is about mistake of fact).
Part 7AB  Enforcement
Division 1  Civil penalty orders

Section 69EJP

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the civil penalty provision, or a provision that relates to the civil penalty provision, expressly provides otherwise.

69EJP  Evidential burden for exceptions

In proceedings for a civil penalty order, a person who wishes to rely on any exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification in relation to a civil penalty provision bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

69EJQ  Liability of body corporate for actions by employees, agents or officers

If an element of a civil penalty provision is done by an employee, agent or officer of a body corporate acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, the element must also be attributed to the body corporate.

69EJR  Liability of executive officers

(1) An executive officer of a body corporate contravenes this subsection if:
   (a) the body corporate contravenes a civil penalty provision; and
   (b) the officer knew that the contravention would occur; and
   (c) the officer was in a position to influence the conduct of the body in relation to the contravention; and
   (d) the officer failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention.

(2) Subsection (1) is a civil penalty provision.

Note: Subdivision A of this Division provides for pecuniary penalties for contraventions of civil penalty provisions.

Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals (Administration) Act 1992

Compilation No. 35  Compilation date: 29/12/18  Registered: 21/1/19
69EJS Establishing whether an executive officer took reasonable steps to prevent the contravention of a civil penalty provision

(1) For the purposes of section 69EJR, in determining whether an executive officer of a body corporate failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention of a civil penalty provision, a court is to have regard to:

(a) what action (if any) the officer took towards ensuring that the body’s employees, agents and contractors have a reasonable knowledge and understanding of the requirements to comply with this Act or the Collection Act, in so far as those requirements affect the employees, agents or contractors concerned; and

(b) what action (if any) the officer took when he or she became aware that the body was contravening this Act or the Collection Act.

(2) This section does not, by implication, limit the generality of section 69EJR.
Division 2—Infringement notices

69EK When an infringement notice may be given

(1) If an inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has contravened a prescribed civil penalty provision, the inspector may give the person an infringement notice for the alleged contravention.

(2) The infringement notice must be given within 12 months after the day the contravention is alleged to have taken place.

(3) A single infringement notice must relate only to a single contravention of a single prescribed civil penalty provision.

69EKA Matters to be included in an infringement notice

(1) An infringement notice must:

(a) be identified by a unique number; and

(b) state the day it is given; and

(c) state the name of the person to whom the notice is given; and

(d) state the name of the person who gave the notice; and

(e) give brief details of the alleged contravention, including:

(i) the provision that was allegedly contravened; and

(ii) the maximum penalty that a court could impose for the contravention; and

(iii) the time (if known) and day of, and the place of, the alleged contravention; and

(f) state the amount that is payable under the notice; and

(g) give an explanation of how payment of the amount is to be made; and

(h) state that, if the person to whom the notice is given pays the amount within 28 days after the day the notice is given, then (unless the notice is withdrawn) proceedings seeking a civil penalty order will not be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; and
Enforcement Part 7AB
Infringement notices Division 2

Section 69EKB

(i) state that payment of the amount is not an admission of liability; and
(j) state that the person may apply to the APVMA to have the period in which to pay the amount extended; and
(k) state that the person may choose not to pay the amount and, if the person does so, proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; and
(l) set out how the notice can be withdrawn; and
(m) state that if the notice is withdrawn proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; and
(n) state that the person may make written representations to the APVMA seeking the withdrawal of the notice.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(f), the amount to be stated in the notice for the alleged contravention of the provision must not exceed one-fifth of the maximum penalty that a court could impose on the person for that contravention.

(3) The regulations may, subject to subsection (2), provide for a scale of amounts that may apply for an alleged contravention.

69EKB Extension of time to pay amount

(1) A person to whom an infringement notice has been given may apply to the APVMA for an extension of the period referred to in paragraph 69EKA(1)(h).

(2) If the application is made before the end of that period, the APVMA may, in writing, extend that period. The APVMA may do so before or after the end of that period.

(3) If the APVMA extends that period, a reference in this Division to the period referred to in paragraph 69EKA(1)(h) is taken to be a reference to that period so extended.

(4) If the APVMA does not extend that period, a reference in this Division to the period referred to in paragraph 69EKA(1)(h) is taken to be a reference to the period that ends on the later of the following days:

(a) the day that is the last day of the period referred to in paragraph 69EKA(1)(h);
(b) the day that is 7 days after the day the person was given notice of the APVMA’s decision not to extend.

(5) The APVMA may extend the period more than once under subsection (2).

69EKC Withdrawal of an infringement notice

Representations seeking withdrawal of notice

(1) A person to whom an infringement notice has been given may make written representations to the APVMA seeking the withdrawal of the notice.

Withdrawal of notice

(2) The APVMA may withdraw an infringement notice given to a person (whether or not the person has made written representations seeking the withdrawal).

(3) When deciding whether or not to withdraw an infringement notice (the relevant infringement notice), the APVMA:

(a) must take into account any written representations seeking the withdrawal that were given by the person to the APVMA; and

(b) may take into account the following:

(i) whether a court has previously imposed a penalty on the person for a contravention of a prescribed civil penalty provision if the contravention is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention in the relevant infringement notice;

(ii) the circumstances of the alleged contravention;
Section 69EKD

(iii) whether the person has paid an amount, stated in an earlier infringement notice, for a contravention of a prescribed civil penalty provision if the contravention is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention in the relevant infringement notice;

(iv) any other matter the APVMA considers relevant.

Notice of withdrawal

(4) Notice of the withdrawal of the infringement notice must be given to the person. The withdrawal notice must state:
   (a) the person’s name and address; and
   (b) the day the infringement notice was given; and
   (c) the identifying number of the infringement notice; and
   (d) that the infringement notice is withdrawn; and
   (e) that proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may be brought in relation to the alleged contravention.

Refund of amount if infringement notice withdrawn

(5) If:
   (a) the APVMA withdraws the infringement notice; and
   (b) the person has already paid the amount stated in the notice;
the Commonwealth must refund to the person an amount equal to the amount paid.

69EKD Effect of payment of amount

(1) If the person to whom an infringement notice for an alleged contravention of a provision is given pays the amount stated in the notice before the end of the period referred to in paragraph 69EKA(1)(h):
   (a) any liability of the person for the alleged contravention is discharged; and
Part 7AB  Enforcement
Division 2  Infringement notices

Section 69EKE

(b) proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may not be brought against the person in relation to the alleged contravention; and

(c) the person is not regarded as having admitted liability for the alleged contravention.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the notice has been withdrawn.

69EKE  Effect of this Division

This Division does not:

(a) require an infringement notice to be given to a person for an alleged contravention of a prescribed civil penalty provision; or

(b) affect the liability of a person for an alleged contravention of a prescribed civil penalty provision if:

(i) the person does not comply with an infringement notice given to the person for the contravention; or

(ii) an infringement notice is not given to the person for the contravention; or

(iii) an infringement notice is given to the person for the contravention and is subsequently withdrawn; or

(c) prevent the giving of 2 or more infringement notices to a person for an alleged contravention of a prescribed civil penalty provision; or

(d) limit a court’s discretion to determine the amount of a penalty to be imposed on a person who is found to have contravened a prescribed civil penalty provision.
Division 3—Enforceable undertakings

69EL Acceptance of undertakings

(1) The APVMA may accept any of the following undertakings:
   (a) a written undertaking given by a person that the person will, in order to comply with a provision of this Act or the Collection Act, take specified action;
   (b) a written undertaking given by a person that the person will, in order to comply with a provision of this Act or the Collection Act, refrain from taking specified action;
   (c) a written undertaking given by a person that the person will take specified action directed towards ensuring one or more of the following:
      (i) that the person does not commit an offence against this Act or the Collection Act;
      (ii) that the person does not contravene a civil penalty provision;
      (iii) that the person is unlikely to commit an offence against this Act or the Collection Act, or to contravene a civil penalty provision, in the future.

(2) The undertaking must be expressed to be an undertaking under this section.

(3) The person may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the written consent of the APVMA.

(4) The APVMA’s consent is not a legislative instrument.

(5) The APVMA may, by written notice given to the person, cancel the undertaking.

(6) The APVMA must publish the undertaking on the APVMA’s website.

(7) However, the APVMA is not required to publish so much of the undertaking that the APVMA is satisfied:

69ELA Enforcement of undertakings

(1) If:
   (a) a person has given an undertaking under section 69EL; and
   (b) the undertaking has not been withdrawn or cancelled; and
   (c) the APVMA considers that the person has breached the undertaking;

   the APVMA may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order under subsection (2).

(2) If the court is satisfied that the person has breached the undertaking, the court may make any or all of the following orders:
   (a) an order directing the person to comply with the undertaking;
   (b) an order directing the person to pay to the Commonwealth an amount up to the amount of any financial benefit that the person has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the breach;
   (c) any order that the court considers appropriate directing the person to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;
   (d) any other order that the court considers appropriate.
Division 4—Injunctions

69EM Grant of injunctions

Restraining injunctions

   (a) restraining the first-mentioned person from engaging in the conduct; and
   (b) if, in the court’s opinion, it is desirable to do so—requiring the first-mentioned person to do a thing.

Performance injunctions

(2) If:
   (a) a person has refused or failed, or is refusing or failing, or is proposing to refuse or fail, to do a thing; and
   (b) the refusal or failure was, is or would be, an offence against this Act or the Collection Act or a contravention of a civil penalty provision;

the court may, on application by any person, grant an injunction requiring the first-mentioned person to do that thing.

Grant of interim injunctions

(3) Before deciding an application for an injunction under this section, the court may grant an interim injunction:

Division 5—Substantiation notices

69EN APVMA may require claims to be substantiated etc.

(1) This section applies if a person has made a claim or representation in relation to:
   (a) the import, or possible import, of a chemical product by the person or another person; or
   (b) the export of a chemical product by the person or another person.

(2) The APVMA may give the person who made the claim or representation a written notice that requires the person to do either or both of the following:

   within 21 days after the notice is given to the person who made the claim or representation.

(3) Any kind of information or documents that the APVMA specifies under paragraph (2)(b) must be a kind that the APVMA is satisfied is relevant to substantiating or supporting the claim or representation.

(4) The notice must:
   (a) name the person to whom it is given; and
   (b) specify the claim or representation to which it relates; and
   (c) explain the effect of sections 69ENA and 69ENB.

(3) The APVMA may, by written notice given to the person, extend the period within which the person must comply with the notice.

(4) Despite subsection (1), an individual may refuse or fail to give particular information or produce a particular document in compliance with a substantiation notice on the ground that the information, or production of the document, might tend to incriminate the individual or to expose the individual to a penalty.

69ENB Failure to comply with substantiation notice

(1) A person contravenes this section if:
   (a) the person is given a notice under section 69EN; and
   (b) the person fails to comply with the notice:

   (a) the person is an individual; and
   (b) the person refuses or fails to give particular information or produce a particular document in compliance with a substantiation notice; and

Division 6—Formal warnings

(1) The APVMA may, by written notice, issue a formal warning to a person if the APVMA has reasonable grounds to suspect that the person may have contravened this Act or the Collection Act.

(2) A formal warning under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
69EP Hearings

(1) The APVMA may hold hearings for the purposes of the performance or exercise of any of its functions or powers.

(2) Before holding a hearing, the APVMA must cause to be published in the Gazette, and in any other manner that it thinks appropriate, a notice setting out the place and time for the hearing.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a hearing is to be held in public.

(4) The APVMA, having regard to the confidential nature of any submissions or evidence or for any other reason, may direct that a part of a hearing be in private and may determine who may be present.

(6) A person must not contravene a direction given under subsection (5).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

(c) is entitled to be present because of a determination under subsection (4).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

(7A) Subsection (7) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (7A). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

(8) At a hearing the APVMA may receive submissions or evidence, in a form determined by it, from persons who, in its opinion, are likely to be able to help it in the performance or exercise of the functions or powers to which the hearing relates.

(9) A hearing is to be conducted with as little formality and technicality as is practicable and the APVMA is not bound by the rules of evidence.

69EQ Self-incrimination to be a reasonable excuse for non-compliance with requirement

It is a reasonable excuse for a person to refuse or fail to give information, produce a document or do any other thing that the person is required to do by or under Part 7A, 7AA or this Part that the information, the production of the document or the doing of that other thing would tend to incriminate the person.

69ER False or misleading information or document

(1) A person commits an offence if, for the purposes of, or in connection with, the making of a decision by the APVMA as to whether it should give a consent under section 69B, the person:
Section 69ES

(b) produces a document that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular without:

   (i) indicating to the person to whom the document is produced that it is false or misleading and the respect in which it is false or misleading; and

Penalty: 300 penalty units.

(2) A person commits an offence if, in compliance or purported compliance with a requirement made by an inspector under Part 7A, Part 7AA or this Part or for the purposes of, or in connection with, any provision of Part 7A (other than section 69B), Part 7AA or this Part, the person:

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

69ES Evidential certificates

(1) This section has effect for the purposes of any proceeding before a court or tribunal or an authority or person having power to require the production of documents or the answering of questions, other than a proceeding for an offence that is directly punishable by imprisonment.

(2) A certificate that states a matter referred to in subsection (3) is prima facie evidence of that matter if it is signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the APVMA, or by a member of the staff of the APVMA whom the APVMA has authorised to give certificates under this section.

(3) The matters that may be stated in a certificate referred to in subsection (2) are as follows:

69ET Forfeiture

(1) If a person is convicted of an offence against Part 7A, 7AA or this Part in respect of a thing that the court finds to be the property of that person, the court may order all or any part of the thing to be forfeited to the APVMA.
Section 69EU

(2) If the court makes an order under subsection (1) in respect of, or in respect of part of, a thing, the thing, or that part of the thing, as the case may be, becomes the property of the APVMA and may be dealt with or disposed of in any manner that the APVMA considers appropriate.

69EU Conduct by directors, employees and agents

(1) Subject to subsection (2), in proceedings against a body corporate for an offence against Part 7A, 7AA or this Part:

(a) any conduct engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment or within his or her actual or apparent authority is taken to have been engaged in also by the body corporate; and

(b) it is taken to be established that conduct (the relevant conduct) was engaged in by the body corporate intentionally, knowingly or recklessly if it is proved:

(i) that the directors of the body corporate intentionally, knowingly or recklessly engaged in the relevant conduct or expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorised or permitted the relevant conduct to be engaged in; or

(ii) that an employee or agent of the body corporate with duties of such responsibility that his or her conduct may fairly be assumed to represent the policy of the body corporate intentionally, knowingly or recklessly engaged in the relevant conduct or expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorised or permitted the relevant conduct to be engaged in.

(2) Subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) does not apply if the body corporate proves that it exercised due diligence to prevent the relevant conduct.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), in proceedings against an individual for an offence against Part 7A, 7AA or this Part:

(a) any conduct engaged in by an employee or agent of the individual within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment or within his or her actual or apparent authority is taken to have been engaged in also by the individual; and

(b) it is taken to be established that conduct (the relevant conduct) was engaged in by the individual intentionally, knowingly or recklessly if it is proved that an employee or agent of the individual with duties of such responsibility that his or her conduct may fairly be assumed to represent the policy of the individual intentionally, knowingly or recklessly engaged in the relevant conduct or expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorised or permitted the relevant conduct to be engaged in.

(4) Paragraph (3)(b) does not apply if the individual proves that he or she exercised due diligence to prevent the relevant conduct.

(5) If:

(a) an individual is convicted of an offence against Part 7A, 7AA or this Part; and

(b) the individual would not have been convicted of that offence if subsections (3) and (4) had not been enacted;

(4) The APVMA must cause to be issued to each person who is an inspector for the purposes of a relevant law an identity card which states the name of the person and the fact that the person is an inspector for the purposes of that law and to which is attached a photograph of the person taken within the 3 years before the identity card is issued.

(5) A person must, within 14 days of ceasing to be an inspector, return to the APVMA the identity card issued to him or her under this section.

(a) the handling of an approved active constituent for a proposed or existing chemical product; or
Section 69H

(b) the handling of a registered chemical product or a reserved chemical product; or

(c) the handling of an active constituent for a proposed or existing chemical product, or of a chemical product, in respect of which a permit or exemption has been issued or given by the APVMA; or

   (i) because an approval, permit or exemption permitting its use, or permitting its use in that manner, has been refused by the APVMA or such an approval, permit or exemption that was previously granted by the APVMA has been suspended or cancelled; or
   (ii) because its use, or its use in that manner, is precluded by the conditions of an approval, permit or exemption; or in relation to any loss or injury directly or indirectly suffered because of the importation, manufacture, supply or handling of the constituent or product, it is not a defence to that action, suit or other proceeding that the APVMA had approved the constituent, registered the product, issued a permit or given an exemption in relation to the constituent or the product, or issued a licence in relation to a step in the manufacture of the product.

(3) This section does not affect section 148 of Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, as that section applies as a law of the Commonwealth.
