6A Subcommittees

- (1) The Advisory Committee may establish subcommittees to assist it in the exercise of its functions.
- (2) Subject to the inclusion of at least 1 member of the Advisory Committee, it does not matter that the members of a subcommittee include persons who are not members of the Advisory Committee.
- (3) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a subcommittee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall be as determined by the Advisory Committee or (subject to any determination of the Advisory Committee) by the subcommittee.

6B Delegation

The Advisory Committee may delegate to a subcommittee of the Advisory Committee any of its functions other than:

- (a) this power of delegation, and
- (b) any function required by the regulations to be exercised only by the Advisory Committee.

7 Functions of Advisory Committee

- (1) The Advisory Committee may initiate and refer to the Minister:
 - (a) recommendations for making, altering or repealing any regulation under this Act,
 - (b) recommendations for amending the Poisons List.

- (2) It is the duty of the Advisory Committee to consider and advise the Minister upon such matters and questions as the Minister may from time to time refer to it relating to:
- (a) any proposal, whether or not initiated by the Committee, for making, altering or repealing any regulations under this Act,
 - (b) any proposal, whether or not initiated by the Committee, for amending the Poisons List.

Division 2 Poisons List

8 Poisons List

- (1) The proclamation of the Poisons List in force under this section immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 to the Poisons (Amendment) Act 1987 continues in force at the commencement as the proclamation of the Poisons List for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Poisons List shall contain 9 Schedules and the substances included in the list shall be classified as follows:

Schedule One

Substances which are of such extreme danger to life as to warrant their being supplied only by medical practitioners, nurse practitioners authorised under section 17A, midwife practitioners authorised under that section, pharmacists, dentists, veterinary practitioners or persons licensed under Part 3.

Schedule Two

Substances which are dangerous to life if misused or carelessly handled, but which should be available to the public for therapeutic use or other purposes without undue restriction.

Schedule Three

Substances which are for therapeutic use and:

- (i) about which personal advice may be required by the user in respect of their dosage, frequency of administration and general toxicity,
- (ii) with which excessive unsupervised medication is unlikely, or
- (iii) which may be required for use urgently so that their supply only on the prescription of a medical practitioner or veterinary practitioner would be likely to cause hardship.

Schedule Four

Substances which in the public interest should be supplied only upon the written prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner authorised to prescribe the substance under section 17A, midwife practitioner authorised to prescribe the substance under that section, dentist, optometrist authorised to prescribe the substance under section 17B, podiatrist authorised to prescribe the substance under section 17C or veterinary practitioner.

Schedule Five

Poisonous substances of a dangerous nature commonly used for domestic purposes which should be readily available to the public but which require caution in their handling, use and storage.

Schedule Six

Substances which should be readily available to the public for agricultural, pastoral, horticultural, veterinary, photographic or industrial purposes or for the destruction of pests.

Schedule Seven

Substances of exceptional danger which require special precautions in their manufacture or use.

Schedule Eight

Substances which are addiction producing or potentially addiction producing.

Schedule Nine

Substances which are specified in Schedule 9 of the current Poisons Standard (within the meaning of Part 6-3 of the Commonwealth Act).

Note. Substances in Schedule 9 are substances which may be abused or misused, the manufacture, possession, sale or use of which should be prohibited by law except when required for medical or scientific research, or for analytical, teaching or training purposes with the approval of Commonwealth or State or Territory Health Authorities. The Poisons Standard is available in electronic form, free of cost, at www.comlaw.gov.au.

(3)–(5) (Repealed)

(6) The Poisons List may be amended or replaced by proclamation made on the recommendation of the Minister and published on the NSW legislation website.

(7) An amendment of the Poisons List may be made by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, provisions of the current Poisons Standard (within the meaning of Part 6-3 of the Commonwealth Act) or any other published standard, as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time.

Editorial note. See the Poisons and Therapeutic Goods \(Poisons List\) Proclamation 2016 and the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989 of the Commonwealth.

Part 3 Poisons and restricted substances

Division 1 Restrictions on supply, possession, etc, of poisons and restricted substances

9 Prohibition on wholesale supply of certain substances for therapeutic use

(1) A person who supplies by wholesale any poison or restricted substance for therapeutic use, except under, and in accordance with the conditions of, a wholesaler's licence or authority issued under the regulations is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

(a) 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both, if the offence involves a restricted substance of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, or

(b) 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both, in any other case.

(2) A wholesaler's licence authorises its holder to supply by wholesale poisons and restricted substances for therapeutic use in or on humans or both in or on humans and in or on animals.

- (3) A wholesaler's authority authorises its holder to supply by wholesale poisons and restricted substances for therapeutic use only in or on animals.
- (4) This section does not apply to a poison specified in Schedule 5 or 6 of the Poisons List.
- (5) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) poisons or restricted substances are taken to be for use in or on animals if the poisons or restricted substances bear information that indicates that they are, or are otherwise represented as being, for use only in or on animals, and
 - (b) poisons or restricted substances are taken to be for use in or on humans if they are not exclusively for use in or on animals.

9A (Repealed)

10 Prohibition on supply of certain substances otherwise than by wholesale

- (1) A person who supplies otherwise than by wholesale any substance specified in Schedule 1, 2 or 3 of the Poisons List except under, and in accordance with the conditions of, a general supplier's licence or a general supplier's authority issued under the regulations is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a supply:
 - (a) by a medical practitioner, dentist, veterinary practitioner or pharmacist in the lawful practice of his or her profession, or
 - (a1) by a nurse practitioner, who is authorised under section 17A to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a2) by an optometrist, who is authorised under section 17B to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a3) by a midwife practitioner who is authorised under section 17A to supply the substance in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a4) by a podiatrist, who is authorised under section 17C to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (b) by any other person, or person of a class, licensed or authorised by or under this Act to supply the substance.
- (3) A person who supplies a restricted substance otherwise than by wholesale is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

 - (a) 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both, if the restricted substance involved in the offence is of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, or
 - (b) 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both, in any other case.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a supply of a restricted substance:
- (a) by a medical practitioner, dentist or veterinary practitioner in the lawful practice of his or her profession, or
 - (a1) by a nurse practitioner, who is authorised under section 17A to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a2) by an optometrist, who is authorised under section 17B to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a3) by a midwife practitioner who is authorised under section 17A to supply the substance in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (a4) by a podiatrist, who is authorised under section 17C to supply the substance, in the lawful practice of his or her profession as such, or
 - (b) by a pharmacist in accordance with the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner, or
 - (c) to a patient of a designated hospital, or an inmate of a designated institution, by a person authorised to supply the substance to patients or inmates of the hospital or institution in accordance with the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner or a dentist, or
 - (c1) by a person who has the care of, or is assisting in the care of, another person (for or to whom the supply of the substance has been authorised by the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner or dentist) and who administers the restricted substance to the other person in accordance with that prescription, or
 - (d) by any other person, or person of a class, licensed or authorised by or under this Act to supply the substance.
- (5) The Secretary may at any time revoke an authorisation or designation given for the purposes of subsection (4) (c) for any reason that the Secretary considers appropriate.
- (6) As soon as practicable after revoking such an authorisation or designation, the Secretary must notify the revocation in writing to the person, hospital or institution concerned. The notice must specify the reason for the revocation.
- (7) In this section:
- authorised means authorised by the Secretary, either specifically or as a member of a class.
- designated hospital means a hospital, or a hospital of a class, designated in writing by the Secretary.
- designated institution means an institution, or an institution of a class, designated in writing by the Secretary.

11 Restriction on wholesale supply of certain substances

(1) A holder of a wholesaler's licence or a wholesaler's authority who supplies to a person other than an authorised person:

(a) a substance specified in Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 7 of the Poisons List, or

(b) a restricted substance,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

(a) 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both, if the offence involves a restricted substance of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, or

(b) 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both, in any other case.

(2) In this section, authorised person means:

(a) a medical practitioner, dentist, veterinary practitioner or pharmacist, or

(a1) a nurse practitioner authorised under section 17A to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or

(a2) an optometrist authorised under section 17B to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or

(a3) a midwife practitioner authorised under section 17A to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or

(a4) a podiatrist authorised under section 17C to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or

(b) a holder of a manufacturer's licence, a wholesaler's licence or a wholesaler's authority, or

(c) a holder of a general supplier's licence or a general supplier's authority, or

(d) any other person licensed or authorised by or under this Act to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned.

12 Obtaining substances by false representation

(1) A person who, by a representation that the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is false or misleading in a material respect, obtains, or attempts to obtain, from an authorised person:

(a) a substance specified in Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 7 of the Poisons List, or

(b) a restricted substance,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

(2) In this section, authorised person means:

- (a) a medical practitioner, dentist, veterinary practitioner or pharmacist, or
- (a1) a nurse practitioner authorised under section 17A to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or
- (a2) an optometrist authorised under section 17B to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or
- (a3) a midwife practitioner authorised under section 17A to supply or use, or have possession, of, the substance concerned, or
- (a4) a podiatrist authorised under section 17C to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned, or
- (b) a holder of a manufacturer's licence, a wholesaler's licence or a wholesaler's authority, or
- (c) a holder of a general supplier's licence or a general supplier's authority, or
- (d) any other person licensed or authorised by or under this Act to supply or use, or have possession of, the substance concerned.

13–15 (Repealed)

16 Offences relating to prescribed restricted substances

- (1) A person shall not have in his or her possession or attempt to obtain possession of a prescribed restricted substance unless:
 - (a) the person is a medical practitioner, pharmacist, dentist or veterinary practitioner, and the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it in the lawful practice of the person's profession as such,
 - (a1) the person is a nurse practitioner who is authorised under section 17A to possess the substance and the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it in the lawful practice of his or her profession,
 - (a2) the person is an optometrist who is authorised under section 17B to possess the substance and the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it in the lawful practice of his or her profession,
 - (a3) the person is a midwife practitioner who is authorised under section 17A to possess the substance and the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it in the lawful practice of his or her profession,
 - (a4) the person is a podiatrist who is authorised under section 17C to possess the substance and the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it in the lawful practice of his or her profession,
 - (b) the person obtains possession or attempts to obtain possession of it on and in accordance with the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner for its supply to the person,
 - (c) the person is a person or belongs to a class of persons authorised by the Secretary for the purposes of section 10 (4) (c),

- (d) the person is a person authorised in writing by the Secretary to obtain possession of the prescribed restricted substance for the purposes of the person's profession or employment and obtains, or attempts to obtain, as the case may be, possession of the prescribed restricted substance in accordance with any conditions subject to which the person is so authorised,
- (d1) the person is a person who has the care of, or is assisting in the care of, another person (for or to whom the supply of the substance has been authorised by the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, optometrist, podiatrist or dentist) and has the prescribed restricted substance in his or her possession for the sole purpose of administering, or assisting in the self-administration of, the substance to the other person in accordance with that prescription, or
- (e) the person is licensed or otherwise authorised by this Act or the regulations to obtain possession of the substance for the purposes of his or her profession or employment.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) for an offence relating to a prescribed restricted substance that is an anabolic or androgenic steroidal agent, 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both, and
 - (b) for an offence relating to a prescribed restricted substance other than an anabolic or androgenic steroidal agent, 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.
- (2) A person shall not forge or fraudulently alter, or utter, knowing it to be forged or fraudulently altered, any prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner including any prescribed restricted substance.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (3) A person who:
- (a) by a representation that the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is false or misleading:
 - (i) obtains, or attempts to obtain, from a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner a prescription that includes a restricted substance of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, or
 - (ii) induces, or attempts to induce, a pharmacist to dispense a prescription that includes such a substance, knowing the prescription to be forged or fraudulently altered, or
 - (iii) induces, or attempts to induce, a pharmacist to dispense a prescription that includes such a substance, knowing the prescription to have been obtained as referred to in subparagraph (i), or
 - (b) is in actual possession of a prescription that includes such a substance, knowing the prescription to be forged or fraudulently altered, or

(c) is in actual possession of a prescription obtained as referred to in paragraph (a) (i), knowing the prescription to be so obtained, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (4) Any prescribed restricted substance in the order or disposition of a person shall, for the purposes of subsection (1), be deemed to be in the person's possession.
- (5) A person shall not be guilty of an offence against subsection (1) by virtue of the person having in his or her possession, or attempting to obtain possession of, a prescribed restricted substance if the person proves that he or she had possession, or attempted to obtain possession, of the substance only for the purpose of delivering it:
- (a) to a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, pharmacist, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner, or
 - (b) to a person to whom its supply has been authorised by the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist or veterinary practitioner.

17 Regulations under Part 3

- (1) Without limiting the generality of section 45C, the Governor may make regulations under this Part for or with respect to:
- (a) the issue, renewal, refusal to issue or renew, suspension and cancellation of licences and authorities for the purposes of this Part and the conditions subject to which licences or authorities may be issued or renewed for those purposes,
 - (a1) fixing the fees to be paid in respect of any licence issued or renewed under this Part,
 - (b) the colouring of any poisons and restricted substances,
 - (c) the conditions under which poisons and restricted substances shall be supplied, disposed of, obtained, stored, kept or used,
 - (d) the shape, size, colour and materials of, and method of sealing, the container or package in which any poison or restricted substance shall or shall not be supplied,
 - (e) requiring the container or package in which any prescribed poison or restricted substance is cased, covered, enclosed, contained or packed for supply to have printed thereon or on the label affixed or attached thereto such particulars as may be prescribed,
 - (f) the conditions under which any proprietary preparation for use as a sheep or cattle dip, or for agricultural, pastoral, veterinary, piscicultural or horticultural purposes or as a vermicide shall be exempt from the operation of the provisions of this Part or any regulations made under this Part,
 - (g) requiring persons engaged in the supply of any poison or restricted substance to keep records and furnish to any prescribed person information (whether in writing or otherwise),

- (h) the issue of prescriptions or orders for any poison or restricted substance, the dispensing of such prescriptions and the supply of poisons and any such substance on such a prescription or order,
 - (i) prohibiting or regulating the free distribution of any poison or restricted substance,
 - (j) (Repealed)
 - (j1) prohibiting or regulating the administering, otherwise than on the order of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, optometrist, podiatrist or dentist, of any restricted substance prescribed for the purposes of section 16.
 - (k) (Repealed)
- (2) A regulation made under this Part may apply:
- (a) to all poisons and restricted substances, to any poison or restricted substance specified in the regulation or to all poisons and restricted substances other than those so specified, and
 - (b) to all persons, to persons or classes of persons specified in the regulation, or to all persons other than persons or classes of persons so specified.

17A Authorisation of possession, use, supply or prescription of substances by nurses and midwives

- (1) A nurse is authorised to possess, use, supply or prescribe a poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction for the purposes of the practice of nursing, if:
- (a) the nurse's registration has an endorsement of a kind referred to in section 94 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) that qualifies the nurse to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction, or
 - (b) the nurse is a nurse practitioner who is authorised in writing by the Secretary to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction.
- (2) A midwife is authorised to possess, use, supply or prescribe a poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction for the purposes of the practice of midwifery, if:
- (a) the midwife's registration has an endorsement of a kind referred to in section 94 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) that qualifies the midwife to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction, or
 - (b) the midwife is a midwife practitioner who is authorised in writing by the Secretary to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction.

17B Authorisation of possession, use, supply or prescription of substances by optometrists

An optometrist whose registration has an endorsement of a kind referred to in section 94 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) that qualifies the optometrist to possess, use, supply or prescribe a poison or restricted substance is authorised to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison or restricted substance for the purposes of the practice of optometry.

17C Authorisation of possession, use, supply or prescription of substances by podiatrists

A podiatrist whose registration has an endorsement of a kind referred to in section 94 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) that qualifies the podiatrist to possess, use, supply or prescribe a poison or restricted substance is authorised to possess, use, supply or prescribe that poison or restricted substance for the purposes of the practice of podiatry.

17D Authorisation of use etc of Schedule 9 substances for research and similar purposes

- (1) The Secretary may, by order in writing, authorise a specified person or class of persons to manufacture, possess, use or supply a specified Schedule 9 substance (not being a prohibited drug within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985) for medical or scientific research, analytical, teaching or training purposes or for industrial or commercial purposes.
- (2) The authorisation may be given unconditionally or subject to conditions.

18 Offence to fail to comply with condition of licence or authority

A person who fails to comply with a condition of a licence or authority issued for the purposes of this Part is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both, if the offence involves a restricted substance of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, or
- (b) 15 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both, in any other case.

18AA Secretary may restrict possession or supply

- (1) In this section, relevant person means a medical practitioner, a nurse, a midwife, a dentist, an optometrist, a pharmacist, a podiatrist or a veterinary practitioner.
- (2) The Secretary may, by order in writing served on a relevant person, prohibit or restrict the person from possessing, supplying or prescribing a substance specified in Schedule 2, 3 or 4 of the Poisons List that the person:
 - (a) possesses, supplies or prescribes in the practice of the person's profession as a relevant person, or
 - (b) is licensed or authorised by or under this Act to possess, supply or prescribe.
- (3) Such an order may be made for any one or more of the following reasons:
 - (a) the person has requested or agreed in writing to the making of the order,
 - (b) the person is convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations made under this Act, or of an offence against the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 or the regulations made under that Act, or an order has been made against the person under section 10 (1) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in respect of such an offence,
 - (c) the person has, in the opinion of the Secretary, failed to comply with any prohibition, restriction or condition imposed on the person by an order under this section,

- (d) the person is, in the opinion of the Secretary, a person who should be restricted or prohibited from possessing, supplying or prescribing such a substance for the purpose of protecting the life, or the physical or mental health, of that or any other person (whether or not any other such person is identifiable).
- (4) An order that restricts a person as referred to in subsection (2):
 - (a) may be made unconditionally or subject to conditions, and
 - (b) may apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified exceptions or factors, and
 - (c) may apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind.
 - (5) An order under this section must specify the grounds on which it is made.
 - (6) An order under this section takes effect:
 - (a) in the case of an order made on the grounds referred to in subsection (3) (d), when the order is served on the person against whom it is made, or
 - (b) in any other case, on the date specified in the order in that regard.
 - (7) Except in the case of an order that is made on the ground referred to in subsection (3) (a), the date referred to in subsection (6) (b) must be a date occurring not less than 14 days after the date on which the order is served on the person against whom it is made.
 - (8) A person must not contravene any order in force under this section.
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

18A Evidentiary provisions

- (1) A person who has actual possession of a quantity of a prescribed restricted substance exceeding the quantity prescribed for the purposes of this subsection is, for the purposes of any proceedings for an offence involving the supply of a quantity of that substance, taken to have possession of the substance for the purposes of supply unless the person:
 - (a) proves the contrary, or
 - (b) proves that the possession of the substance was obtained in accordance with the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner, optometrist, podiatrist, dentist or veterinary practitioner.
- (2) A substance that, for the purpose of being supplied, is represented as being a particular prescribed restricted substance is taken to be that particular restricted substance for the purposes of any proceedings for an offence involving the supply of a prescribed restricted substance.
- (3) In this section, prescribed restricted substance means a restricted substance prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of section 16.

Division 1A Substances and goods used for cosmetic and other purposes

18B Object of Division

The object of this Division is to prescribe requirements in respect of certain substances and goods that may be used for cosmetic and other purposes.

18C Substances and goods to which Division applies

This Division applies to the following:

- (a) botulinum toxins for human use,
- (b) hyaluronic acid and its polymers in preparations for injection or implantation,
- (c) any other substance specified in Schedule 2, Schedule 3, Schedule 4 or Schedule 8 of the Poisons List that is prescribed by the regulations,
- (d) any therapeutic goods prescribed by the regulations.

18D Regulation of substances and goods to which Division applies

- (1) The regulations may prescribe requirements in respect of the possession, manufacture, supply, use, prescription, administration, storage and disposal of any substance or goods to which this Division applies.
- (2) A person who contravenes a requirement prescribed for the purposes of this section and identified in the regulations as a category 1 requirement or a category 2 requirement is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a requirement identified in the regulations as a category 1 requirement—1,000 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 200 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months (or both) in the case of an individual, or
- (b) in the case of a requirement identified in the regulations as a category 2 requirement—250 penalty units in the case of a body corporate or 50 penalty units in any other case.

Division 2

19 (Repealed)

Part 4 Drugs of addiction

Division 1 Restrictions on possession, manufacture, supply, etc, of drugs of addiction

20–22 (Repealed)

23 Possession and supply of drugs of addiction by carers

Despite any other provision of or made under this or any other Act, a person who has the care of, or is assisting in the care of, another person (for or to whom the supply of a drug of addiction has been authorised by the prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner or dentist) is not guilty of an offence in relation to the possession or supply of the drug if the person is in possession of the drug for the sole purpose of administering, or assisting in the self-administration of, the drug to the other person and does so in accordance with that prescription.

24 Regulations under Division 1 of Part 4

- (1) Without limiting the generality of section 45C, the Governor may, for the purpose of preventing the improper use of drugs of addiction, make regulations under this Division for or with respect to:
 - (a) prohibiting the manufacture of any drug of addiction except on premises licensed for the purpose and subject to the conditions specified in the licence,
 - (b) prohibiting the manufacture or supply of any such drug except by persons licensed or otherwise authorised under the regulations and subject to any conditions specified in the licence or authority,
 - (c) prohibiting the issue by persons other than medical practitioners, nurse practitioners, midwife practitioners, dentists or veterinary practitioners of prescriptions containing any such drug,
 - (d) prohibiting or regulating the issue by medical practitioners, nurse practitioners, midwife practitioners, dentists or veterinary practitioners of prescriptions containing any such drug, the dispensing of such prescriptions, and the supply of any such drugs thereunder,
 - (e) requiring persons engaged in the manufacture or supply of any such drug to keep such books and furnish such information either in writing or otherwise to such persons as may be prescribed, and making provision for the inspection of such books and records by prescribed persons,
 - (f) fixing the fees to be paid in respect of any licence, inspection, permit, or authority made or issued under the regulations,
 - (g) providing for the forfeiture of any such drug unlawfully in the possession of any person,
 - (h) providing that any specified breach of the regulations shall be regarded as “misconduct in a professional respect” within the meaning of any Act,
 - (h1) prohibiting or regulating the administering, otherwise than on the order of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner, midwife practitioner or dentist, of any drug of addiction, and
 - (i) generally, regulating and controlling the manufacture, possession and supply of drugs of addiction.
 - (j) (Repealed)
- (2) Regulations shall be made under this Division making provision for or with respect to:
 - (a) authorising pharmacists to be in possession of any drug of addiction for the purposes of:
 - (i) manufacturing at their respective shops in the ordinary course of their respective retail businesses any preparation, admixture, or extract of that drug, and

- (ii) carrying on at their respective shops the business of supplying, dispensing, or compounding that drug,
- (b) authorising medical practitioners, pharmacists employed in dispensing medicines at any public hospital or other institution, dentists and veterinary practitioners to be in possession of and to supply, in the lawful practice of their professions as such, any drug of addiction, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed,
- (b1) authorising nurse practitioners or midwife practitioners employed in dispensing medicines at any public hospital or other institution to be in possession of and to supply, in the lawful practice of their professions as such, any drug of addiction, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed,
- (c) authorising persons in charge of laboratories for the purpose of research or instruction, and such other persons as to the Minister may seem proper to be in possession of any drug of addiction for the purposes of their professions or employments, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed,
- (d) the issue, grant and renewal of licences or authorities for the purposes of this Division by the Secretary on such terms and subject to such conditions (including in the case of a licence the payment of a fee) as the Secretary thinks proper, and
- (e) the withdrawal and suspension of any such licence or authority by the Secretary.
- (f) (Repealed)
- (2A), (3) (Repealed)
- (4)
 - (a) A general licence to manufacture drugs of addiction shall not be issued.
 - (b) A licence to manufacture drugs of addiction shall be limited to the manufacture of a particular drug or drugs specified in the licence.
 - (c) Several licences to manufacture drugs of addiction may be issued to the same person.
- (5) Subject to this Division, a regulation made under this Division may apply:
 - (a) to all drugs of addiction, to any such drug specified in the regulation, or to all such drugs other than those so specified, and
 - (b) to all persons, to persons or classes of persons specified in the regulations, or to all persons other than persons or classes of persons so specified.

25 Further offences against this Division

Any person:

- (a) (Repealed)
- (b) who acts in contravention of or fails to comply with the conditions of any licence issued or authority granted under or in pursuance of this Division, or

- (c) who, for the purpose of obtaining, whether for himself or herself or for any other person, the issue, grant, or renewal of any such licence or authority as aforesaid, makes any declaration or statement which is false in any particular, or knowingly utters, produces, or makes use of any such declaration or statement or a document containing such a declaration or statement, shall be guilty of an offence against this Division.

26 Penalties

- (1) Every person guilty of an offence against this Division shall in respect of each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and the court convicting any such person may order that any article in respect of which the offence was committed shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.
- (2) The court before which the offender was convicted of an offence against this Division may order any forfeited articles to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the court thinks fit.
- (3) No person shall, on conviction for any offence of contravening or failing to comply with the conditions of any licence issued or authority granted under the regulations made under this Division to supply a drug of addiction or any regulation relating to the keeping of books or the issuing or dispensing of prescriptions containing a drug of addiction, be sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine or to pay a fine exceeding 1 penalty unit, if the court dealing with the case is satisfied that the offence was committed through inadvertence and was not preparatory to or committed in the course of or in connection with the commission or intended commission of any other offence against this Division.
- (4) Any person who attempts to commit an offence against this Division, or solicits or incites another person to commit such an offence, shall, without prejudice to any other liability, be liable to the same punishment and forfeiture as if the person had committed an offence against this Division.
- (5) (Repealed)
- (6) In any proceedings against a person for an offence against this Division it shall not be necessary to negative by evidence any licence, authority, or other matter of exception or defence, and the burden of proving any such matter shall lie on the person seeking to avail himself or herself of the matter.

Division 2 Restrictions on prescribing drugs of addiction

27 Definition

In this Division:

drug dependent person means a person who has acquired, as a result of repeated administration of:

- (a) a drug of addiction, or
- (b) a prohibited drug within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985, an overpowering desire for the continued administration of such a drug.

28 Prohibition on prescribing drugs of addiction in certain cases

- (1) A medical practitioner or nurse practitioner must not, without the proper authority, prescribe for or supply to any person a type A drug of addiction.
- (2) A medical practitioner or nurse practitioner must not, without the proper authority, prescribe or supply a type B drug of addiction:
 - (a) for continuous therapeutic use by a person for a period exceeding 2 months, or
 - (b) for a period that, together with any other period for which that drug or any other type B drug of addiction has been prescribed or supplied by the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner or has, to the medical practitioner's or nurse practitioner's knowledge, been prescribed or supplied by any other medical practitioner or nurse practitioner, would result in that drug, or that drug together with any other such drug, being prescribed or supplied for continuous therapeutic use for a period exceeding 2 months.
- (3) A medical practitioner or nurse practitioner must not, without the proper authority, prescribe for or supply to a person who, in the opinion of the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner, is a drug dependent person a type C drug of addiction.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the proper authority means an authority under section 29 that authorises the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner to prescribe or supply the drug of addiction to the person concerned.
- (5) A drug of addiction may be prescribed for or supplied to a person by a medical practitioner or nurse practitioner without the proper authority if the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner is authorised by the regulations to prescribe or supply the drug without an authority under section 29.

- (6) In this section:

type A drug of addiction means a drug of addiction prescribed by the regulations under this section as a type A drug of addiction.

type B drug of addiction means a drug of addiction prescribed by the regulations under this section as a type B drug of addiction.

type C drug of addiction means any drug of addiction (other than a type A drug of addiction).

28A Approval of prescribers of drugs of addiction

- (1) The Secretary may, on the recommendation of the Medical Committee, approve a medical practitioner as a prescriber of drugs of addiction.
- (2) Application for such an approval must be made to the Secretary in writing and must be referred by the Secretary to the Medical Committee for its recommendation.
- (3) An applicant must provide the Secretary:
 - (a) in the application, and
 - (b) before approval of the application, with such information relevant to the application as the Secretary requires.

- (4) The Secretary may give an unconditional approval or an approval subject to specified conditions.
- (5) An approval given subject to conditions is ineffective unless the conditions are complied with.
- (6) The Secretary may, on the recommendation of the Medical Committee:
 - (a) revoke an approval or a condition of an approval,
 - (b) amend a condition of an approval,
 - (c) impose a condition of an approval that was an unconditional approval, or
 - (d) impose an additional condition of an approval.
- (7) The Secretary may, pending receipt of a recommendation for the purposes of subsection (6) or before referring the matter to the Medical Committee for a recommendation if the circumstances are sufficiently urgent to require immediate action:
 - (a) suspend an approval, or
 - (b) impose or amend a condition of an approval.
- (8) The Secretary may arrange for an approval to be referred from time to time to the Medical Committee for review and a report and recommendation to the Secretary as a result of the review.
- (9) Nothing in this section prevents the Secretary from refusing an application or from referring for report and recommendation by the Medical Committee any question arising under this section.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (7), the circumstances are sufficiently urgent to require immediate action with respect to a medical practitioner's approval if the Secretary is of the opinion that the action is necessary for the purpose of protecting the life, or the physical or mental health, of the medical practitioner or any other person (whether or not any other such person is identifiable).

29 Secretary may authorise prescription or supply of drugs of addiction

- (1) An application for the authority of the Secretary referred to in section 28 is to be in a form approved by the Secretary.
- (2) Any such application may be referred by the Secretary to the Medical Committee.
- (3) The Secretary may give an authority for the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner by whom any such application is made to prescribe for or supply to the person to whom the application relates any drug of addiction specified in that authority for the purpose of the treatment of that person.
- (4) Where the Secretary refers an application to the Medical Committee, the Secretary shall take into consideration any report of that Committee relating to that application made before the authority is granted.
- (4A) If an application has been referred to the Medical Committee under subsection (2), the Secretary may issue a temporary authority to the applicant expiring on a specified date that is not later than 4 months after its issue.

- (5) An authority (whether or not a temporary authority):
 - (a) may specify the maximum quantity of the drug of addiction that may be so prescribed or supplied by the medical practitioner or nurse practitioner,
 - (b) may specify the period for which any such drug may be so prescribed or supplied,
 - (c) may be given subject to such conditions as the Secretary thinks fit and specifies in the authority, and
 - (d) is to be in a form approved by the Secretary.
- (6) Any such authority given verbally shall be confirmed in writing or by electronic communication as soon as practicable after it is given.
- (7) The Secretary may revoke an authority (including a temporary authority) given under this section.
- (8) The Secretary may arrange for an authority to be referred from time to time to the Medical Committee for review and a report and recommendation to the Secretary as a result of the review.

30 Medical Committee

- (1) The Minister shall constitute a Medical Committee for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) The Medical Committee shall consist of:
 - (a) a medical practitioner nominated by the Australian Medical Association (NSW) Limited,
 - (b) a medical practitioner nominated by the Royal Australasian College of Physicians, New South Wales State Committee, and
 - (c) a medical practitioner nominated by the Minister.
- (3) If within the time specified by the Minister in a notice in writing served on the Australian Medical Association (NSW) Limited, or the Royal Australasian College of Physicians, New South Wales State Committee, as the case may be, a medical practitioner is not nominated for the purpose of subsection (2) (a) or (b) the Minister may appoint any medical practitioner to be a member of the Medical Committee in the place of the member referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b), as the case may be.
- (4) The Medical Committee shall consider every application referred to it under section 28A or 29 (2) and shall, as soon as practicable after the application is referred to it, furnish to the Secretary a report in writing containing a recommendation whether or not an approval or authority of the kind applied for should be given and whether, if given, it should be unconditional or subject to specified conditions.
- (5) A member of the Medical Committee is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the member.

30AA Power of Medical Committee to obtain information

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) under section 28A (8) or 29 (8) the Secretary refers an approval or an authority to the Medical Committee for review, and
 - (b) the review of the approval or authority is with respect to a possible contravention of this Act or the regulations, or a failure to comply with any conditions to which the approval or authority is subject.
- (2) For the purposes of conducting the review and preparing its report and the recommendation, the Medical Committee may require the Health Care Complaints Commission, the Medical Council of New South Wales, the Medical Board of Australia, the Nursing and Midwifery Council of New South Wales or the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia to provide the Medical Committee with any information in the Commission's, Council's or Board's possession that is relevant to the Medical Committee's review.
- (3) A requirement made by the Medical Committee under this section must be made in writing.
- (4) The Health Care Complaints Commission, the Medical Council of New South Wales, the Medical Board of Australia, the Nursing and Midwifery Council of New South Wales and the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia must comply with any reasonable requirement given to the Commission, Council or Board under this section.
- (5) This section applies despite any provision of the Health Care Complaints Act 1993 or the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW).
- (6) (Repealed)

30A Subcommittees

- (1) The Medical Committee may establish subcommittees to assist it in the exercise of its functions.
- (2) It does not matter that any or all of the members of a subcommittee are not members of the Medical Committee.
- (3) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a subcommittee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall be as determined by the Medical Committee or (subject to any determination by the Medical Committee) by the subcommittee.

30B Delegation

The Medical Committee may delegate to a subcommittee of the Medical Committee any of its functions other than:

- (a) this power of delegation, and
- (b) any function required by the regulations to be exercised only by the Medical Committee.

Part 4A Application in New South Wales of Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws

Division 1 The applied provisions

31 Application of Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws to New South Wales

- (1) The Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws, as in force for the time being and as modified by or under this Part, apply as a law of New South Wales.
- (2) Those Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws so apply as if they extended to:
 - (a) things done or omitted to be done by persons who are not corporations, and
 - (b) things done or omitted to be done in the course of trade or commerce within the limits of New South Wales.
- (3) The regulations under this Act may modify the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws for the purposes of this section.

32 Interpretation of Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws

- (1) The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 of the Commonwealth, as in force for the time being, applies as a law of New South Wales in relation to the interpretation of the applied provisions, and so applies as if those provisions were respectively an Act of the Commonwealth or regulations or orders under such an Act, as the case requires.
- (2) The Interpretation Act 1987 does not apply to the applied provisions.

Division 2 Functions and powers under applied provisions

33 Functions and powers of Commonwealth Minister

The Commonwealth Minister has the same functions and powers under the applied provisions as that Minister has under the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws as those laws apply to the Commonwealth.

33A Functions and powers of Commonwealth Secretary

- (1) The Commonwealth Secretary has the same functions and powers under the applied provisions as that Secretary has under the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws as those laws apply to the Commonwealth.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commonwealth Secretary has the function of including goods in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods kept under the applied provisions and is authorised to cancel the inclusion of goods in that Register in accordance with those provisions.

33B Functions and powers of other persons

An authorised person, authorised officer or official analyst appointed under the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws has the same functions and powers under the applied provisions as the person, officer or analyst has under those Commonwealth laws as they apply to the Commonwealth.

33C Delegations by the Commonwealth Minister or Secretary

Any delegation by the Commonwealth Minister or the Commonwealth Secretary under section 57 of the Commonwealth Act is taken to extend to, and have effect for the purposes of, the corresponding provision of the applied provisions.

33D Appointments under Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws

The appointment of a person to an office or position under a provision of the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws is taken to extend to, and have effect for the purposes of, the applied provisions.

Division 3 Administrative law matters

33E Application of Commonwealth administrative laws to applied provisions

- (1) The Commonwealth administrative laws apply as laws of New South Wales to any matter arising in relation to the applied provisions as if those provisions were a law of the Commonwealth and not a law of New South Wales.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of New South Wales, a matter arising in relation to the applied provisions:
 - (a) is taken to be a matter arising in relation to laws of the Commonwealth in the same way as it would if those provisions were a law of the Commonwealth, and
 - (b) is taken not to be a matter arising in relation to laws of New South Wales.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of New South Wales except as prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) Any provision of a Commonwealth administrative law applying because of this section that purports to confer jurisdiction on a federal court is taken not to have that effect.

33F Functions and powers conferred on Commonwealth officers and authorities

- (1) A Commonwealth administrative law applying because of section 33E that confers on a Commonwealth officer or authority a function or power also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to a matter arising in relation to the applied provisions.
- (2) In performing a function, or exercising a power, conferred by this section, the Commonwealth officer or authority must act as nearly as is practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power under the Commonwealth administrative law.
- (3) A function or power conferred on a Commonwealth officer or authority because of this section cannot be performed or exercised by an officer or authority of New South Wales.

Division 4 Offences

33G Object of this Division

- (1) The object of this Division is to further the object of this Part by providing for an offence against the applied provisions to be treated as if it were an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

- (2) The purposes for which an offence is to be treated as mentioned in subsection (1) include, for example (but without limitation):
 - (a) the investigation and prosecution of offences, and
 - (b) the arrest, custody, bail, trial and conviction of offenders or persons charged with offences, and
 - (c) proceedings relating to a matter referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), and
 - (d) appeals and review relating to criminal proceedings and to proceedings of the kind referred to in paragraph (c), and
 - (e) the sentencing, punishment and release of persons convicted of offences, and
 - (f) fines, penalties and forfeitures, and
 - (g) liability to make reparation in connection with offences, and
 - (h) proceeds of crime, and
 - (i) spent convictions.

33H Application of Commonwealth criminal laws to offences against applied provisions

- (1) The relevant Commonwealth laws apply as laws of New South Wales in relation to an offence against the applied provisions as if those provisions were a law of the Commonwealth and not a law of New South Wales.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of New South Wales, an offence against the applied provisions:
 - (a) is taken to be an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were a law of the Commonwealth, and
 - (b) is taken not to be an offence against the laws of New South Wales.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of New South Wales except as provided by the regulations.

33I Functions and powers conferred on certain Commonwealth officers and authorities relating to offences

- (1) A provision of the applied provisions applying because of section 33H that confers on a Commonwealth officer or authority a function or power in relation to an offence against the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding provision of the applied provisions.
- (2) In performing a function or exercising a power conferred by subsection (1), the Commonwealth officer or authority must act as nearly as practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding provision of the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws.

33J No double jeopardy for offences against applied provisions

If:

- (a) an act or omission is an offence against both the applied provisions and an offence against the Commonwealth therapeutic goods laws, and
 - (b) the offender has been punished for that offence under those Commonwealth laws,
- the offender is not liable to be punished for the offence under the applied provisions.

Division 5 Miscellaneous

33K (Repealed)

33L Commonwealth may retain fees paid to Commonwealth Secretary

The Commonwealth may retain fees paid to, or recovered by, the Commonwealth Secretary in respect of the performance or exercise of functions or powers conferred on that Secretary by the applied provisions.

Part 5 General

Division 1 Offences

34 Hawking of poisons and therapeutic goods

(1) A person who:

- (a) goes from house to house supplying regulated goods, or
 - (b) while in a public street or other public place, supplies regulated goods,
- is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person or a person of a class of persons, or regulated goods or regulated goods of a class, exempted by an order under subsection (3).
- (3) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, exempt any person or class of persons, or any regulated goods or class of regulated goods, from the operation of subsection (1). Such an exemption may be unconditional or subject to conditions.

(4) In this section:

house means any premises where people reside, whether permanently or not.

public place means any place where members of the public are lawfully entitled, invited or permitted to be present in their capacity as members of the public, whether conditionally or unconditionally, but does not include:

- (a) a shop, or
- (b) premises where a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner authorised under section 17A, midwife practitioner authorised under that section, dentist, optometrist, podiatrist, veterinary practitioner or pharmacist carries on the practice of his or her profession.

35 Secretary can obtain information about certain substances and goods

- (1) The Secretary may, by notice served on a person who manufactures in, imports into or supplies in New South Wales any regulated goods, require the person to give to the Secretary, or to such other person as may be identified in the notice, such information about the substance or goods as is specified in the notice. Such a notice may specify a period of not less than 14 days within which the requirement of the notice is to be complied with.
- (2) A notice under this section may be served on a person even though the person has previously given information about the substance or goods specified in the notice.
- (3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice given to the person under this section is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (4) A person who, in purporting to comply with a notice under this section, gives information that the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is false or misleading in a material respect is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (5) In this section, regulated goods includes any substance that might warrant inclusion in the Poisons List.

36 Offence to supply certain substances and goods by automatic machine

- (1) A person who, whether in premises under the person's control or elsewhere:
 - (a) installs an automatic machine for the supply of regulated goods, or
 - (b) supplies regulated goods by means of an automatic machine,is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (2) A person who occupies or controls premises is guilty of an offence if:
 - (a) an automatic machine for the supply of regulated goods is installed on the premises, or
 - (b) regulated goods are stored in an automatic machine that is installed on the premises, or
 - (c) regulated goods are supplied by means of an automatic machine.Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a person or a person of a class of persons, or regulated goods or regulated goods of a class, exempted by an order under subsection (4).
- (4) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, exempt any person or class of persons, or any regulated goods or class of regulated goods, from the operation of subsection (1) or (2).

Such an exemption may be unconditional or subject to conditions.

36AA Medicines to be dispensed by pharmacists

- (1) A person, other than a pharmacist or a person acting under the personal supervision of a pharmacist, must not dispense or compound any substance specified in the Poisons List on the prescription of a medical practitioner, a nurse practitioner, a midwife practitioner, an optometrist, a podiatrist, a dentist or a veterinary practitioner.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent:
- (a) a medical practitioner, a nurse practitioner, a midwife practitioner, an optometrist, a podiatrist, a dentist or a veterinary practitioner from supplying a substance to which that subsection refers in the ordinary course of his or her profession, or
 - (b) a person from supplying a substance to which that subsection refers under, and in accordance with the conditions of, an authority issued under this Act or the regulations.

36A Offence to supply unregistered or unlisted goods

- (1) A person who supplies by retail therapeutic goods to a person is guilty of an offence unless:
- (a) the goods are registered goods or listed goods, or
 - (b) the goods are exempt goods or are the subject of an approval or authority under section 19 of the Commonwealth Act.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) This section applies to therapeutic goods that are for use in or on humans, but does not apply to:
- (a) a supply of therapeutic goods that are listable devices within the meaning of the Commonwealth Act, or
 - (b) a supply of therapeutic goods by a person who is a sponsor within the meaning of that Act.

Note. Section 19 of the Commonwealth Act empowers the Commonwealth Secretary to grant approval for the import, export or supply of therapeutic goods for the treatment of a person or for use solely for experimental purposes in humans.

36B Offence to supply regulated goods by retail after expiry date

- (1) A person who supplies by retail regulated goods after the expiry date that is, in accordance with a standard that is applicable to the goods, stated on or in relation to the goods is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A standard is applicable to regulated goods if:
- (a) a standard specified in an order under section 10 of the Commonwealth Act is applicable to the goods, or
 - (b) if no such order is applicable to the goods but the goods are the subject of a monograph in the British Pharmacopoeia in the case of goods for use in or on humans, or the British Pharmacopoeia (Veterinary) in the case of goods for use in or on animals—a standard that is constituted by the statements in that monograph.

Note. Section 10 of the Commonwealth Act empowers the Commonwealth Minister to make orders determining standards for therapeutic goods.

36C Offence to use certain therapeutic devices without licence

A person who, in New South Wales, uses a therapeutic device of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section is guilty of an offence, unless the use is under, and is in accordance with the conditions of, a user's licence issued in accordance with the regulations.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

36D Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) If a body corporate contravenes, whether by act or omission, any provision of this Act or the regulations, each person who is a director, or a person concerned in the management, of the body is taken to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.
- (2) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision under this section whether or not the body corporate has been proceeded against or convicted.
- (3) This section does not affect any liability imposed on a body corporate for an offence committed by the body against this Act or the regulations.

37 Prohibition on supply etc of any poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Secretary may, by order published in the Gazette, prohibit the supply of any substance specified in the order which in his or her opinion should not be supplied pending the evaluation of its toxic or deleterious properties or of any substance containing any such substance.
- (2) Any person who contravenes an order made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Division 2 Analysts and analysis

37A Appointment of analysts

- (1) The Minister may appoint particular persons or a class of persons to be analysts for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The appointment of a particular person as an analyst is to be by a document of appointment given to the person.
- (3) The appointment of a class of persons to be analysts is to be by means of a notice published in the Gazette.
- (4) Persons may be appointed as analysts whether or not they are employed under Part 4 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.

Note. Section 47 of the Interpretation Act 1987 provides, among other things, that a power of appointment includes a power to remove or suspend an appointee and power to appoint another person to act in place of an appointee who is removed or suspended from appointment.

37B Conduct of analyses

- (1) An inspector may submit for analysis under this section any substance or goods seized under this Act.
- (2) An analyst is required to carry out or personally supervise the carrying out of an analysis of a substance or goods submitted to the analyst for analysis.
- (3) An analyst who has carried out or personally supervised the carrying out of an analysis of any such substance or goods may, and must on request, issue a certificate of analysis setting out the results of the analysis.
- (4) The owner of any such substance or goods, or the person in whose possession or under whose control the substance or goods were when they were seized, is entitled to be provided with a copy of the certificate of analysis relating to the substance or goods on payment of the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) A person who, for trade purposes or advertisement, uses the results of an analysis carried out for the purposes of this Act, or a certificate of analysis issued under this section, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty (subsection (5)): 20 penalty units.

38 Calculation of percentages in case of liquid preparations

For the purpose of the Poisons List, percentages in the case of liquid preparations shall (unless other provision in that behalf is made by regulations) be calculated on the basis that a preparation containing 1 per cent of any substance means a preparation in which:

- (a) 1 gramme of the substance, if a solid, or
- (b) 1 millilitre of the substance, if a liquid, is contained in every 100 millilitres of the preparation, and so in proportion for any greater or less percentage.

Division 3 Evidentiary matters

39 Certificate of Secretary prima facie evidence

In any legal proceedings under this Act or the regulations a certificate purporting to be signed by the Secretary or by a person employed in the Ministry of Health authorised generally or specially by the Secretary in that behalf to do so and to certify that any person is or is not a person who holds a licence, permit or authority under this Act or the regulations shall, without proof of the signature or of the official character or authority of the person purporting to have signed the certificate, be prima facie evidence of the fact stated in the certificate.

40 Proof of certificate of an analyst

- (1) Any analyst analysing any substance submitted to him or her may give a certificate of the result of the analysis.

- (2) In any legal proceedings under this Act or the regulations, the production of a certificate, purporting to be signed by an analyst, shall be prima facie evidence of the identity of the substance analysed, and of the result of the analysis, without proof of the signature, employment or appointment of the person appearing to have signed the certificate.
- (3) (Repealed)

41 Evidence in prosecutions under this Act

In any prosecution for a contravention of or failure to comply with any provision of this Act or any regulation, whenever it is necessary or proper to prove in respect of any particular article or substance that it conforms to any of the following descriptions, namely:

- (a) that it is a poison or poisonous,
- (b) that it consists of or contains poison,
- (c) that it is a restricted substance, or
- (c1) that it is a Schedule 9 substance, or
- (d) that it is a drug of addiction, or
- (d1) that is therapeutic goods,

then in every such case:

- (e) evidence that any substance commonly supplied under the same name or description as the said particular article or substance conforms to any of the descriptions contained in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (c1), (d) or (d1) is prima facie evidence that the particular article or substance also conforms to the same description accordingly,
- (f) evidence that any particular article or substance bears any inscription required by the regulations in respect of any substance or class of substances shall be prima facie evidence that that particular article or substance is a substance, or belongs to the class of substances, in respect of which that inscription is so required, and
- (g) evidence that the container in which any particular article or substance is contained is labelled as required, or bears any inscription required, by the regulations in respect of containers containing any substance or class of substances shall be prima facie evidence that that particular article or substance is a substance, or belongs to a class of substances, the containers of which are so required to be labelled or to bear that inscription.

Division 4 Enforcement

42 Inspectors

- (1) The Secretary may, in writing, appoint a person to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) An appointment under this section may authorise the exercise of all the functions of an inspector under this Act or only specified functions and may authorise the exercise of functions generally or in a particular case.

- (3) A person may be appointed to be an inspector whether or not the person is employed under Part 4 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.
- (4) The Secretary must ensure that each inspector appointed under this section is issued with a certificate of identity that incorporates a recent photograph of the inspector.
- (5) A person appointed under this section must, as soon as practicable after ceasing to be an inspector, return the person's certificate of identity as an inspector to the Secretary.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

- (6) A police officer is, by virtue of his or her office, taken to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

Note. Section 47 of the Interpretation Act 1987 provides, among other things, that a power of appointment includes a power to remove or suspend an appointee and power to appoint another person to act in place of an appointee who is removed or suspended from appointment.

43 Powers of entry and seizure

- (1) This section applies to:
 - (a) regulated goods that are for supply or are (whether or not the goods are to be the subject of further manufacture) intended for supply, or
 - (b) goods that an inspector reasonably believes to be regulated goods referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) For the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act or the regulations, or any condition of an approval, authority or licence given or issued for the purposes of this Act or the regulations, are being complied with, an inspector may do any of the following:
 - (a) enter any premises that the inspector reasonably believes to be used in or in connection with the manufacture, distribution, conveyance, storage, handling or supply of goods to which this section applies,
 - (b) search those premises,
 - (c) require the production of stocks of any such goods that are kept on those premises and any record relating to the keeping of, or dealings with, those stocks,
 - (d) inspect stocks, and inspect and make copies of a record, or part of a record, produced in accordance with such a requirement or found on the premises,
 - (e) open and examine any receptacle, container or package that the inspector reasonably believes may contain any such goods,
 - (f) examine any such goods,
 - (g) seize and remove for analysis portions or samples of any such goods,
 - (h) seize and detain any things found on those premises if the inspector reasonably believes that a contravention of this Act or the regulations, or a condition of an approval, authority or licence given or issued for the purposes of this Act or the regulations, has been committed with respect to those things,

- (i) examine any records (including prescriptions), that may be relevant to investigating or auditing compliance with an approval given, or authority or licence issued, for the purposes of Part 4 or with respect to a prescribed restricted substance,
 - (j) remove any records referred to in paragraph (i).
- (3) The power conferred by subsection (2) (g) or (h) to seize goods or things includes a power to remove the goods or things from the premises where they were seized.
- (4) An inspector may enter a part of premises used for residential purposes only with the consent of the occupier or in accordance with a search warrant obtained.
- (5) An inspector must not exercise a power conferred by this section unless the inspector:
- (a) is in possession of a certificate of identity, and
 - (b) gives reasonable notice to the occupier of the premises of intention to exercise the power (unless giving notice would defeat the purpose for which it is intended to exercise the power), and
 - (c) exercises the power at a reasonable time (unless it is being exercised in an emergency), and
 - (d) produces the certificate of identity if asked to do so by an occupier of the premises, and
 - (e) uses no more force than is reasonably necessary to exercise the power.

A police officer in uniform is not required to comply with paragraph (a) or (d) when exercising the powers of an inspector conferred by this section.

- (6) The owner of the premises is entitled to recover from the Crown as a debt a reasonable amount of compensation for damage caused by an inspector while exercising the power to enter, inspect or search premises.
- (7) A person who:
- (a) intentionally delays or obstructs an inspector in the exercise of any of the inspector's powers under this Act, or
 - (b) without reasonable excuse, fails to produce any substance, goods or records that the person is required to produce under this Act,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (8) In this section:

prescribed restricted substance means a substance listed in Appendix D to the Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Regulation 2002.

production of a record includes, if the record is not in writing or is not written in English or is not decipherable on sight, production of a statement in English that is decipherable on sight and sets out the contents of the record.

record includes any book, account, document, paper or other source of information compiled, recorded or stored in written form, on microfilm, or by electronic process, or in any other manner or by any other means.

43A Search warrant may be issued in certain cases

(1) In this section:

authorised officer has the same meaning as it has in the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002.

- (2) A person who is authorised by the Minister or the Secretary to do so may apply to an authorised officer for a search warrant for premises if entry to the premises has been refused, or an attempt to enter has been, or is likely to be, unsuccessful, and:
- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that an offence under this Act or the regulations has been, or is being, committed on the premises, or
 - (b) the search warrant is sought in order to exercise a power conferred by section 43 (2).
- (3) An authorised officer to whom an application is made under this section may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, issue a search warrant authorising a person named in the warrant to enter the premises.
- (4) Division 4 of Part 5 of the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 applies to a search warrant issued under this section.

43B Powers of detention and search

(1) In this section:

police vessel means a vessel ordinarily used by members of the police force in the execution of their duty.

prescribed restricted substance means a restricted substance prescribed for the purposes of section 16.

- (2) A member of the police force of or above the rank of sergeant, or in charge of a police station or police vessel, may at any time with as many members of the police force as the member thinks necessary:
- (a) enter into any part of any vessel or aircraft, and
 - (b) search and inspect the vessel or aircraft.
- (3) A member of the police force of or above the rank of sergeant, or in charge of a police station or police vessel, may, for the purpose of enabling the powers conferred on members of the police force by subsection (2) to be exercised, stop and detain any vessel or aircraft in which the member reasonably suspects there is any prescribed restricted substance which is, in contravention of this Act, in the possession or under the control of any person.

- (4) A member of the police force may stop, search and detain:
- (a) any person in whose possession or under whose control the member reasonably suspects there is, in contravention of this Act, any prescribed restricted substance, or
 - (b) any vehicle in which the member reasonably suspects there is any prescribed restricted substance which is, in contravention of this Act, in the possession or under the control of any person.

44 Penalty

Every person who is guilty of an offence against any provision of this Act or acts in contravention of or fails to comply with any provision of this Act or any regulation for which no other penalty is expressly provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 2 penalty units.

45 Proceedings for offences

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations are to be disposed of before the Local Court.
- (2) Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations may be started only within 2 years after the offence is alleged to have been committed.

45A–45B (Repealed)

Division 5 Miscellaneous

45C Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (1A) In particular, the regulations may make provision for or with respect to any of the following:
 - (a) providing for the issue, renewal, suspension and cancellation of licences for the purposes of section 36C and the conditions subject to which such licences may be issued or renewed for those purposes,
 - (b) prohibiting or regulating the advertising of therapeutic goods by persons engaged in the supply of those goods, including the form and content of advertisements and the manner in which advertisements may be published or displayed,
 - (c) providing for labelling, sampling, examining, testing and analysing therapeutic goods,
 - (d) prescribing conditions to be complied with when preparing, supplying, storing, packing, handling, carrying and delivering therapeutic goods,
 - (e) prohibiting or regulating the supply of therapeutic goods of a specified class,
 - (f) prescribing fees that are to be paid for matters arising under this Part (including fees for the issue and renewal of licences referred to in paragraph (a)),
 - (g) requiring persons of a specified class to keep records for the purposes of this Part,

- (h) prohibiting the supply of therapeutic goods by self-service methods specified in the regulations.
- (1B) The regulations may also make provision for or with respect to any of the following:
- (a) empowering Magistrates to order the forfeiture of regulated goods and other things seized under this Act and to order payments to be made to meet costs incurred in seizing, storing and disposing of goods or things so seized,
 - (b) providing for the storage and release of goods seized under this Act,
 - (c) conferring rights of appeal on persons aggrieved by decisions of the Secretary relating to:
 - (i) the issue, renewal or refusal to issue or renew licences or authorities issued or renewed for the purposes of this Act or the regulations, or
 - (ii) the suspension, withdrawal or cancellation of licences or authorities issued or renewed for those purposes.
- (2) Regulations may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as may be specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any person specified therein, either generally or for any class of cases or in a particular case.
- (4) The regulations may incorporate by reference, wholly or in part and with or without modification, any standards, rules, codes, specifications or methods, as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time, prescribed or published by any authority or body, whether or not it is a New South Wales authority or body.
- (5) The regulations may create offences punishable by a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.

45D Act binding on Crown in right of New South Wales

This Act binds the Crown not only in right of New South Wales but also, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

45E Notes in text

Notes in the text of this Act are explanatory notes only and do not form part of this Act.

46 Tabling and disallowance of proclamations and orders

Sections 40 and 41 of the Interpretation Act 1987 apply to:

- (a) a proclamation made under section 8, and
- (b) an order made under section 37, in the same way as they apply to a statutory rule.

46A Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 3 has effect.

Part 6 Amendments to Crimes Act 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, and Motor Traffic Act 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts

47, 48 (Repealed)

Schedule 1 Provisions relating to the members of the Advisory Committee

(Section 6)

1 Definitions

In this Schedule:

appointed member means a member appointed by the Governor.

member means a member of the Advisory Committee.

2 Chairperson of the Advisory Committee

The Chairperson of the Advisory Committee is the person nominated by the Minister under section 6 (2) as a member.

3 Acting appointed members

- (1) The Governor may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of an appointed member and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of a member and shall be deemed to be an appointed member.
- (2) The Governor may remove from office a person appointed under subclause (1).
- (3) A person while acting in the office of an appointed member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the person.

4 Term of office

Subject to this Schedule, an appointed member holds office for such period not exceeding 3 years as is specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

5 Remuneration

A member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the member.

6 Vacancy in office of appointed member

- (1) The office of an appointed member becomes vacant if the member:
 - (a) dies,

- (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed,
- (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister,
- (d) is removed from office by the Governor under this clause,
- (e) is absent from 4 consecutive meetings of the Advisory Committee of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or by post, except on leave granted by the Secretary or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Secretary for having been absent from those meetings,
- (f) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit,
- (g) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (h) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

(2) The Governor may remove an appointed member from office at any time.

7 Filling of vacancy in office of member

If the office of an appointed member becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

8 Effect of certain other Acts

- (1) The Government Sector Employment Act 2013 does not apply to the appointment of an appointed member and an appointed member is not, as a member, subject to that Act.
- (2) If by or under any other Act provision is made:
 - (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office,
 - (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office,the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of a member or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Act as a member.

Schedule 2 Provisions relating to the procedure of the Advisory Committee

(Section 6)

1 General procedure

The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Advisory Committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Act and the regulations, be as determined by the Advisory Committee.

2 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Advisory Committee shall be as prescribed by the regulations.

3 Presiding member

- (1) The Chairperson of the Advisory Committee or, in the absence of the Chairperson, another member elected to chair the meeting by the members present shall preside at a meeting of the Advisory Committee.
- (2) The person presiding at a meeting of the Advisory Committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, a second or casting vote.

4 Voting

A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Advisory Committee at which a quorum is present is a decision of the Advisory Committee.

5 Minutes

The Advisory Committee must cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings at each meeting of the Advisory Committee.

Schedule 2A (Repealed)

Schedule 3 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 46A)

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of:
 - the Poisons Amendment (Therapeutic Goods) Act 1996
 - Nurses Amendment (Nurse Practitioners) Act 1998*
 - Health Legislation Amendment Act 2004* (but only to the extent that it amends this Act)
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later day.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of the publication.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Poisons Amendment (Therapeutic Goods) Act 1996

2 Definitions

In this Part:

amending Act means the Poisons Amendment (Therapeutic Goods) Act 1996.

earlier Act means the Therapeutic Goods and Cosmetics Act 1972.

3 Saving of exemption orders

- (1) If an order in force under section 6 of the earlier Act was applicable to section 42 of that Act immediately before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act, the order is taken to be an order made under section 36 of this Act, as in force after the commencement of Schedule 1 [25] to the amending Act.
- (2) If an order in force under section 6 of the earlier Act was applicable to section 43 of that Act immediately before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act, the order is taken to be an order made under section 34 of this Act, as in force after the commencement of Schedule 1 [25] to the amending Act.

4 Saving for existing licences

- (1) If:
 - (a) a licence authorising its holder to sell a substance or device by wholesale is in force under Division 2 of Part 3 of the earlier Act immediately before the repeal of that Division by the amending Act, and
 - (b) the substance or device is a substance specified in Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 7 of the Poisons List or a restricted substance,the licence is taken to be a wholesaler's licence in force for the purposes of section 9 of this Act (as substituted by the amending Act).
- (2) If:
 - (a) an authority is in force under the regulations immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 [12] to the amending Act, and
 - (b) the authority authorises its holder to supply by wholesale for use only in or on animals a substance specified in Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 7 of the Poisons List or a restricted substance,the authority is taken to be a wholesaler's authority in force for the purposes of section 9 of this Act.
- (3) If a licence was in force under section 9 of this Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 [12] to the amending Act), the licence is taken to be a general supplier's licence in force for the purposes of section 10 of this Act (as in force after that commencement).

(4) If:

(a) a licence authorising its holder to use a device is in force under Division 2 of Part 3 of the earlier Act immediately before the repeal of that Division by the amending Act, and

(b) the device is therapeutic goods within the meaning of this Act, the licence is taken to be a user's licence in force for the purposes of section 36C of this Act.

5 Suspension of existing licences

A licence that was, immediately before the repeal of the earlier Act by the amending Act, suspended under section 21 of that Act is taken to be suspended for the purposes of this Act. This clause applies to a licence only if the licence is otherwise saved by clause 4.

6 Appointment of inspector under earlier Act

An inspector holding office under section 29 of the earlier Act immediately before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act is taken to be an inspector appointed under section 42 of this Act (as substituted by the amending Act).

7 Appointment of analyst under earlier Act

An analyst holding office under section 39 of the earlier Act immediately before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act is taken to be an analyst appointed under section 37A of this Act.

8 Disposal of goods seized under earlier Act

Goods seized under section 30 of the earlier Act and not disposed of under that Act before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act are to be disposed of under the earlier Act as if that Act had not been so repealed.

9 Information required under section 41 of earlier Act

If a notice served on a person under section 41 of the earlier Act has not been complied with before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act, then, despite that repeal, the notice continues to have effect as if that section had not been repealed.

10 Saving for notices under sections 19 and 21 of earlier Act

If a notice served on a person under section 19 or 21 of the earlier Act has not had effect before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act, then, despite that repeal, the notice continues to have effect as if that section had not been repealed.

11 Saving for pending appeals

Section 52 of the earlier Act relating to appeals continues to apply to and in respect of an appeal made under that Act and pending immediately before the repeal of that Act by the amending Act.

12 Saving for certain regulations

Any regulations in force for the purposes of section 24 (2) (f) of this Act immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 [21] to the amending Act are taken to be regulations made for the purposes of section 45C (1B) (c) of this Act.
